Mr. T. O'Morain,

A Ghara,

I am sending by separate post a bundle of 50 of Harrison's booklets "The Partition of Ireland" as I promised you. The names and addresses of the Hon. Secretaries of the Croydon and Oxford Branches I will send along to you as soon as the Officers have been elected, which will be in the course of the next ten days. I hope this will be in time for your pamphlet. I wish to thank you again for the names and addresses of the Secretaries of the I.N.F. Branches in London. As soon as possible I will get in touch with them.

I hope you were pleased with your visit on Saturday. An exchange of views between the different branches is always useful and I personally was very glad that you visited us. I must apologise again for the absence of Mr. Long and Mr. Fitzgerald but we have conveyed your views to them on the matters raised. Mr. Henneys asks me to inform you that he is forwarding a cheque and letter tomorrow.

Kindest regards to all in Liverpool.

Yours sincerely,

Organising Secretary.
